

PORTLAND SOLO SUPPORT

SEMINAR SCHEDULE

Aug 5 - "River Rescue and Safety"

Cpt. Francis Breddin of the Multnomah County River Patrol will talk about water safety, rescue protocols, police and coast guard resources, maritime rules, and other topics relating to heroing on the river.

Aug 19 - "Trademark Yourself"

If you haven't trademarked your identity, you may be losing out on easy money and possibly even setting yourself up for legal problems. IP attorney Bill Hatton will explain why you should trademark yourself and how to do it cheaply and easily.

Sept 2 - "Why You Need a Journal"

Sarah Frost will talk about how she's turned the military concept of "debriefing" into a journal-writing routine that has proved essential for helping solve crimes and convict criminals.

Sept 16 - "Finding the Right Sponsors"

Long-time NOLA solo, The Ragin' Cajun, is flying in to talk about how to find sponsors to defray the expenses of the heroic lifestyle. The event will be preceded by a pot luck barbecue to honor our guest. Bring a salad if you can fly, swing, or glide, an appetizer or dessert if you can't.

Sept 30 - "Hero Insurance"

Alice Ames from Travelers Insurance will discuss the importance of hero insurance policy. Remember, heroes win over 97% of the cases brought against them, but even a simple case can cost over $20,000 to defend. Travelers has a subsidized insurance program to cover these fees.

All Seminars start at 7:00 PM.
